

ATTACHMENT B

Particular Things to be Searched for and Seized

1. Any and all firearms, destructive device, or ammunition as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 921(a), or any photographs of firearms or ammunition or of persons in possession of firearms or ammunition.
2. Any and all firearm related accessories or parts, including but not limited to, magazines, sights, stocks, grips, barrels, triggers, targets, target shooting, repair tools, loaders, or cleaning equipment.
3. Ammunition;
4. Any and all tactical gear or apparel relating to the possession or use of firearms and ammunition including but not limited to tactical or hunting clothing, camouflage military-style uniform, hearing protection, eye protection, bipods, laser sights, tactical optics, target throwers, or decoys, etc.;
5. Any and all evidence showing or depicting participation in militia or military type training where firearms and ammunition were used or possessed.
6. Paraphernalia used to store firearms or ammunition, including but not limited to cases, safes, duffle bags, supplies or other containers;

7. Ammunition reloading supplies and equipment, including, but not limited to, gunpowder, primers, brass casings, bullets, reloading presses, dies, manuals, powder tricklers, and scales;
8. Documents related to the purchase of firearms, ammunition, and materials used in the construction of firearms and ammunition, including, but not limited to receipts, photographs, and communications regarding such purchases;
9. Evidence of occupancy, control, or ownership of the property to be searched, including but not limited to, received mail, outgoing mail with a return address, concealed mail, deeds, leases, rental agreements, photographs, personal ledgers, utility and telephone bills, and statements, and identification documents.